

Akbank computer centre

Security not only for financial data.

Source: www.k2mimarlik.com/en/akbank-data-center.html

Installation example pumping station Aqualift F XL Duo (Source: KESSEL)

The computer centre of the financial institution Akbank is located in an innovative building with 57,500 m² of total usable space. It meets the highest security standards and is designed for permanent operation.

Selection Criteria

- Use of corrosion-free material
- The disposal intervals can be lengthened by permanent monitoring using the SonicControl layer thickness measuring device
- 20-year guarantee on PE material for long-term investment security
- Innovative chamber system for a wide range of different installation depths

Products Used In Reference Object

- EasyOil Class I
- Aquapump XL pumping station